

SUMMER SOUNDS 2022 at Historic TRINITY Church 115 Charlotte Street, Saint John

Monday nights in June - July & Thursday nights in August

All Monday programs begin at 7:15 PM and are about one hour in length. Free will offering for all events to be shared with the presenters. Co-ordinated by David Goss at gosswalk@nbnet.nb.ca.

June 27: Andrew Clark, guitarist and songster extraordinaire who specializes in modern and contemporary presentations, some he writes himself. He has performed as part of the Cool Chicks and Ugly Docling's, and is working on a 4th CD in his newly established studio.

July 4: Ron Maloney of Quispamsis with a mix of lively top tunes of the past everyone remembers. You can make requests, and if Ron knows the piece you can hum along or tap your toes ... or get up and dance!

July 11: Before the Mast Saint John's premiere Sea Shanty group who will give a lesson in shanty singing and a preview of their Sea Shanty Festival coming up in St. Martins on August 12-14.

Saturday July 16 - 7:00 PM sung EVENSONG by the combined youth and adults of Choir School's Choral Workshop at Trinity.
(Openings for choristers interested, too. Call 652-8235 for details.)

July 18: Tom and Mary Noel, popular duo from Saint John West who specialize in Maritime and contemporary songs that will get your feet a tappin'!

July 25: Campfire Songs with their Stories led by David Goss. David has delved into his past as a leader of Scouting and campfires, and will share his favorite sing-a-long pieces. We'll hear stories of their origin and use over the years, with guitar accompaniment.

The 7:00PM August Thursday's programs will feature artists on the Phoenix Digital Organ, recently installed in Trinity, as well as VOCAL treats. (More information before August). The program co-coordinator is Spencer Belyea.

August 4 Organist - Gibson MacMillan

August 11 Soprano - Maureen Paras & Friends

August 18 Vocalists - Mary Louise Belyea & Shane Scott

August 25 Organist - Richard Kidd
